It is a privilege to have the opportunity to return as your Principal, and I am thrilled to be a part of a community of such highly dedicated faculty and staff, wonderful students, and supportive families. I look forward to working with all of you to make this school year successful.

I'd like to invite you to visit our school's website at www.creecs.org. Some of the key items on the site include upcoming events, the student/parent handbook, and important reminders.

In closing, please enjoy the remaining days of summer. I look forward to seeing many new and familiar faces on our first day of school.
